

Plan your next event in New Kent.

There is considerable interest these days in non-traditional settings for weddings and other special events. Open air locations with scenic vistas or historic significance, less formality and venues with a variety of options/activities are in demand. New Kent County has many such venues which offer the bride-to-be or event planner many options from which to select.

New Kent County is conveniently located between Richmond and Williamsburg with easy access to the Richmond Airport, and all of the activities and amenities of the metropolitan area and Virginia's Colonial Capitol. Each of the venues listed can provide assistance and suggestions for caterers, rentals and all the logistical needs of your event. We encourage you to take a look at New Kent and find the location that is just perfect for your special event.
