

New Kent County offers many nontraditional settings for weddings and other special events, such as open air locations with scenic views, places with historical significance, and so much more. We encourage you to take a look at New Kent and find the location that is just perfect for your special event.

New Kent County is conveniently located between Richmond and Williamsburg. There is easy access to the Richmond Airport, and all of the activities and amenities of the metropolitan area and Virginia's Colonial Capitol.

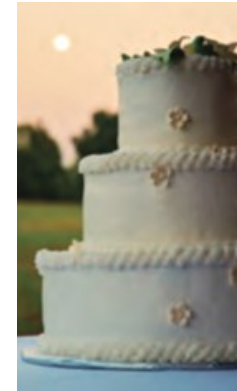

Each of the venues listed can provide assistance and suggestions for caterers, rentals and all other needs for your event.
